SECTION B

READ THIS PASSAGE AND ANSWER QUESTIONS THAT FOLLOW

An Englishman living near Sheffield had the most unlucky day's fishing. He was standing on a low bridge when he had the misfortune to knock his tin of bait into the river. Leaning over the side of the bridge, he tried to hook the tin and pull it out of the river. As he did so, his car keys fell out of his pocket and disappeared into the water.

Feeling thoroughly annoyed with himself and his bad luck, the fisherman leaned over the bridge to try and see where his keys had gone. As he did so, the bridge collapsed and he fell into the river. This was the last straw. The fisherman crawled out of the river and went back to his car. There he discovered that he had locked the doors and could not get in. His anti-theft lock had immobilized his car. There was nothing left for him to do, but walk sadly home.
