Two Boys Help Solve A Case

Thomas and Farai reached the old building which was at Chikuru Farm. From how it looked, they knew it was once a house. What was left of it was the wall structure. It no longer had a roof, doors and windows.

Curiosity drew the two boys in. they went from room to room, all which were empty, except for dust rubble. As they were about to walk out, Farai noticed a big rusty drum. Peeping inside it, the boys saw a bag. Thomas reached for it. He placed it on the floor and opened it. They were amazed to find money, a great deal of it.

The two boys quickly ran back home with the bag. Uncle Ruzivo telephoned the police. Four police officers came. They identified the money as that which had been robbed from Chivhu bank. Two police officers were left on the farm to lay a trap for whoever had hidden the bag.

At dusk, three men approached the old house. Just as they were going in, the police came out of the hiding and arrested them.
